Cops Don't Belong at Pride, "Unseemly" Queer People Do

Marsha P. Johnson and the failures of queer respectability

Alexander Petrovnia
May 20, 2021

There has been a huge amount of discourse recently around respectability within the queer community, and the presence of police officers there. Many people, especially young queer people, do not know our history around this issue. I hope this will help to educate some of us as to how long and brutal this fight has been

Riot police break up protest by g
48 men and women arrested at sit-in outside police mpu à coups de matraques

Police brutality has always been, and continues to be, a queer issue.

Prison abolition has always been, and continues to be, a queer issue.
